

SEECP CHAIRMANSHIP-IN-OFFICE 2019-2020 Prishtina

Thematic priorities and Chairmanship motto

During its SEECP Chairmanship-in-Office Prishtina will push for prioritizing EU enlargement process and will focus on promoting political stability and security, and enhancing the economic prosperity and connectivity in South East Europe. Specific attention will be given to strengthening youth, culture and tourism cooperation and promoting the region to the EU and beyond.

The motto of our Chairmanship-in-Office, SEECP regional cooperation 4EU and Me, echoes the endeavor for strengthening regional cooperation both as a criteria for joining the European Union but also for the concrete benefit it entails for the citizens of the region. Other thematic priorities relate to:

- Connectivity– working on better use, better routes and better connection among economies, infrastructure, energy and people.
- Youth - distinguishing youth potential of the region as one of the main assets of our societies for a better and prosperous future.
- Culture, Arts and Tourism – re-branding, redeveloping and re-igniting the regions’ true touristic and cultural potential. Promotion of culture and young artists as well as touristic attractions aiming to promote and bring our beautiful region closer to the EU and the world.
